nity to explain away the circumstances which at present appear to lock mysterious.

Justice Stuart—If you have any witness to introduce overy facility shall be awarded you for that purpose. As for my part, I intend to do justice to all parties, so far as my ability alds me. I have taken legal advice of some of the most learned lawyers in the city, and have been informed by them that in this case no forgery existed. On the other hand, lawyers of equal ability declare it to be a forgery. I will, in this event, take sufficient time, after the case is submitted to me, and endeavor to decide it to the best of my judgment.

The case was ultimately adjourned until three o'clock this afternoon, when it is understood syldence will be produced in defence of Mr. White. The whole matter is then to cloce, and counsel on all sides sum up, and submit it to the Court.

A small hotel experience, Which filled my beart sith grief:
Last aummer, at the Clarendon, I stopped a week or mere.
And marked two "boot-ies" overy merm Before my neighbor's door;
Two boots with patent leather tips—
Two boots which seemed to say;
"An angel trots around is un!"—
They stole my heart away.
And often in my nightly dreams
They swept before my face,
A lady growing out of them,
As flowers grow from a wase,
But, ah! one morn I saw a sight
Which struck me like a stone—
Son e other name was on the book;
These boots were not alone!
A great tail pair of other-boots
Were stranding by their ride,
And off they walked that afternoon,
And with them walked—a bride! WANTED-AT 592 BROAD WAY, A PLAIN GARDENER
